SYNOPSIS

The Abbey Manor Historical Society will be hosting the event and you are invited! The Abbey Manor Masquerade Dinner will host some of the most rich and famous socialites from across the country including astronaut Yuna Verz, big city homicide detective Sherlock Tracy, ultra feminine doll designer Dolly Dee, ill-mannered optometrist Dr Mag Niffie, celebrity Chef Bameril Lacrosse and television producer Pepper Keegrip just to name a few. The evening will begin in the grand entrance where guests will be dressed in character for a photo opportunity, followed by canapés and beverages and most importantly, here you will receive your first clue card for the night!

You'll then be escorted to the Long Room to enjoy a casual, alternate main meal when alas, someone is murdered!! To keep the negative press at bay, the Board & guests avoid calling the police so they can figure out 'whodunit'! And so, as the night progresses, there's finger pointing and blaming one another as the intense interrogations continue and you are presented with a further 2nd clue cards. After dessert is served – it's time! The guests must declare who they find guilty and as the room erupts in debate, the murderer jumps out of their chair to their feet and shouts "I confess – it was me!!!"

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I bring my own alcohol?

Alcoholic beverages may be consumed on the accommodation floors of the Abbey (2nd & 3rd floors), but the ground floor and general grounds are licensed areas therefore beverages consumed in these areas will need to be purchased from the Abbey.

Is late check-out available?

Check out is by 10am – unfortunately late checkout is unavailable as the rooms need to be prepared for new arrivals.

Are murder mystery nights fun?

The more you play your character, the more fun you'll have! Role-playing is essential, or at least you have to be willing to go along with the story-line.

Can I take photos on the night?

Absolutely! Bring your camera along and take plenty of photos throughout the night. Feel free to tag, like and share them on social media channels using our hashtag #abbeyoftheroses

Are these nights good for work functions or just groups of friends?

Murder Mystery's are ideal for work social functions as they are interactive and help to include all guests, which can be great for partners of team members. Groups of friends, social groups and birthday parties are another excuse to get together for some organised fun and to add more memories to the vault.

Can you cater for special dietary requirements?

As long as we are made aware of special dietary requirements at least 2 weeks prior we can cater for vegetarian, gluten free diets.

Do I need to hire a costume for my character?

You can of course hire or buy a costume new or from an op shop if you want, but most of our characters can be dressed from cloths you can 'put together' from your wardrobe by being a little creative. We do ask you buy or make a masquerade mask to wear throughout the evening.

Can each of the guests in my group pay the Abbey directly?

Sorry, with groups you need to arrange one co-ordinator to collect payments from friends, arrange, room allocation and all other aspects of the Murder Mystery and the Abbey liaises directly with this person.

I hope the above information has been helpful in starting your plans. Please feel free to contact us if you have any queries regarding the packages available or if you would like to know the availability of a specific date.
