SYNOPSIS

The Abbey Manor Historical Society will be hosting the event and you are invited! The Abbey Manor Masquerade Dinner will host some of the most rich and famous socialites from across the country including astronaut Yuna Verz, big city homicide detective Sherlock Tracy, ultra-feminine doll designer Dolly Dee, ill-mannered optometrist Dr Mag Niffie, celebrity Chef Bameril Lacrosse and television producer Pepper Keegrip just to name a few. The evening will begin on the stair case with all guests dressed in character for a photo opportunity, followed by canapés and beverages and most importantly, here you will receive your first clue card for the night!

You'll then be escorted to the Reception Room to enjoy a casual, alternate serve main meal. During the evening someone may be murdered... to keep the negative press at bay, the Board & guests avoid calling the police so they can figure out 'whodunit'! And so, as the night progresses, there's finger pointing and blaming one another as the intense interrogations continue and you are presented with a further 2nd clue cards. After dessert is served – it's time! The guests must declare who they find guilty and as the room erupts in debate, the murderer jumps out of their chair to their feet and shouts "I confess – it was me!!"

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do I find out about available dates?

Visit the EVENTS section of our webpage to see upcoming dates you can join in on, or if you are wanting to start your own date give us a ring to see availability.

Can I bring my own alcohol?

Alcoholic beverages may be consumed in your accommodation room of the Abbey (2nd & 3rd floors), but the ground floor and general grounds are licensed areas therefore beverages consumed in these areas will need to be purchased from the Abbey.

Is late check-out available?

Check out is by 10am - unfortunately late checkout is unavailable as the rooms need to be prepared for new arrivals.

Are murder mystery nights fun?

The more you play your character, the more fun you'll have! Role-playing is essential, or at least you have to be willing to go along with the story-line.

Can I take photos on the night?

Absolutely! Bring your camera along and take plenty of photos throughout the night. Feel free to tag, like and share them on social media channels using our hashtag #abbeyboutiquehotel

#murdermysterynight

Are these nights good for work functions or just groups of friends?

Murder Mysteries are ideal for work social functions as they are interactive and help to include all guests, which can be great for partners of team members. Groups of friends, social groups and birthday parties are another excuse to get together for some organised fun and to add more memories to the vault.

Can you cater for special dietary requirements?

As long as we are made aware of special dietary requirements at least 2 weeks prior we can cater for vegetarian, gluten free diet and vegan diets.

Do I need to hire a costume for my character?

You can of course hire or buy a costume new or from an op shop if you want, but most of our characters can be dressed from cloths you can 'put together' from your wardrobe by being a little creative. We do ask you buy or make a masquerade mask to wear throughout the evening - no mask no beverages 😊.

Can each of the guests in my group pay the Abbey directly?

Sorry, with groups you need to arrange one co-ordinator to collect payments from friends, arrange, room allocation and all other aspects of the Murder Mystery and the Abbey liaises directly with this person.

Can children attend the Murder Mystery?

If all rooms are booked by the one group children can stay over, otherwise no one under 18 is able to stay at the Abbey. During the dinner, clues do need to be read out and acting out of allocated character, so 'mature' children could be included if you are having a private Murder Mystery dinner.

We hope the above information has been helpful in starting your plans. Please feel free to contact us if you have any queries regarding the packages available or if you would like to know the availability of a specific date.

We look forward in hearing from you and making your stay at the AbbeyUnforgettable!
